

Holds Enthusiastic Meeting at Oxford Last Week

Oxford, renowned for its culture and learning through its North Carolina opened its spiritual doors to the ladies of Albemarle Presbyterian from Tuesday to Friday of last week. Mrs. Dr. Baker of Tarboro, President of the General Assembly, Mrs. Lay of Raleigh was Secretary and Treasurer. Reports of the various ladies' societies throughout the Presbytery were read and an effort made to reorganize along regular and unified lines thereby securing more efficient work in each society.

Mrs. W. F. Horner, Mrs. Leslie Mosher and Mrs. Joli Taylor represented the Presbyterian Ladies Aid Society of this city. Mr. Mrs. Horner was entertained by Mrs. James Horner while Mrs. Mosher and Mrs. Taylor enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Kerr Taylor. The meetings were opened Tuesday by a most interesting and instructive lecture by Mr. Blain a missionary just returned from China, followed by an informal reception in the Church Parlors tendered the delegates by the young ladies of the Philathea Class of Oxford.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Williams entertained at her spacious home with a large and beautiful reception to the ladies of Oxford and the visiting members of the Presbytery, having as special guests in the receiving line all the delegates from the different churches. Thursday morning was devoted entirely to the address of Missouri who gave a most helpful lecture also one of the new organizations.

At one o'clock Mrs. Long gave a delicately appointed luncheon to the delegates and their hostesses.

The meetings closed Thursday afternoon and the ladies afterwards enjoyed a delightful automobile ride over the city. They were especially interested in the beautiful Masonic Orphanage situated in this place.

The ladies were very much pleased with the cordially and hospitality of all the citizens of Oxford, for members of all the churches there, Methodist, Baptist and Episcopal as well as Presbyterian opened their doors to the delegates and seemed to anticipate even their slightest wish and vied with each other in the entertainment of their guests.

"Now let us put our heads together and see if we can't arrange matters."

Put out heads together? That would hardly do, Maud. Our green wig wouldn't harmonize with my purple hair," Louisville Courier-Journal.

"Gee! I had an awful fright last night."

"Yes! I saw you with her," Harvard Lampoon.

"Can I believe my eyes?" exclaimed Mr. Timkins as he confronted the burglar. Mr. Timkins had been sent down in the middle of the night to investigate a strange noise, which proved to be the family silver in process of packing up.

The burglar reached for his gun but Mr. Timkins grabbed the hand instead.

"Don't," he said, giving the hand a cordial shake, "you don't know how much I'm interested in you. Stay awhile, I want you to meet Mrs. Timkins."

"While you're calling a cop? Not on your life!" retorted the burglar. "No," said Mr. Timkins, "I just want you to stay while I call my wife. She's heard you at night for two weeks and she's the first one

PROTECTION "Against Yourself"

Did you ever figure out that the strongest reason for a SAVINGS ACCOUNT is not the protection it offers AGAINST FIRE, THIEVES and LOSS—but the way it protects you from your own tendency to spend your money while you have it.
